

ANGEL

By: Peter Queal

Taking time to understand reading of your passion's plan sacrifice to lift the hearts of others driven by a will to tell your deep emotions still...

Words that touch the simple side feelings that you cannot hide how your spirit seeks the strong devotion stories of a life that's seen such changes coming here to Lift us to a star that's glowing always clear, the joy that's flowing you came here to bring this bright light, a high light I'll sing and dance with angels in the night

Here I am you lovely angel, you flew into my room settled on my bedpost, glowing and sang a gentle tune...

This is what you bring to me vision of eternity
I've been free since I first saw your beauty in the colored light you wear to sing your heart's delight

So here I am with love and spirit singing loud so you can hear it you came here to bring this show time, a high light I'll sing and dance with angels in the night
