

Somony By: peter Queal

Chorus

es somony daeyou go (4x)

I walk the earth, big blue sky
There you are, drifting by Sudden soft, not for long
No control, you are everywhere

You face away, but you call
With your form, and a windy sigh
Spreading light, crystal beams
Dripping sun from your misty high

Shape of life, silver glow
Form again, It's a dancing show
Touch a heart, tempt a soul

You're taking me and I dare to go
